General News.

The Sydney morning Herald, in as article on the shipping of the port of Sydney, says:-"Most people will be surprised to learn that the aggregate tonnage of the vessels visiting this colony at the present time is in excess of that of the shipping entering and clearing from the port of London one hundred years ago. Yet such is the fact.

Holloway's Ointment and Pills,—An infallible remedy for bad Legs and all kinds of Wounds.—The surprising sale of these invaluable medicines in every part of the civilised world is the most convincing proposition of their efficacy. They speedily cure bad legs, old wounds, scrofula, and diseases of the skin. Thousan of persons suffering from these dreadful maladies have been caused by them after every other means had of persons summing from these dreams manages have been cared by them after every other means bad failed; and it is a fact beyond all doubt that there is no case, however obstinate or long standing, but may be quickly relieved and ultimately cared by these wonderful medicines. Their united action is irresistible; more need not be said in praise of these celebrated Pilig. Let those who doubt their excellence give them
