ACADEMY OF MUSIC.
TUESDAY NIGHT, MAY 26.

CAPTAIN TUTTLE will give an interesting LECTURE on THE WHALES AND ITS HABITS, illustrating his subject by Oil Paintings, and giving a full description of the various species of Whales, their food and peculiar habits, and their young.
 He will demonstrate the fact that the Whale, as described in Scripture as having swallowed Jonah, is capable of swallowing a man, and that the narrative in Holy Writ is therefore correct.
 Captain Tuttle is on his way to meet his Whaling Ship. He has had 28 years' experience in Whaling, and is one of the oldest Whaling Masters of the Pacific Ocean, so is therefore competent to give a most interesting and instructive Lecture.
 Captain Tuttle has Lectured in Salt Lake City to over 3,000 persons, and in various parts of the world, and will introduce in the Lecture several Anecdotes in the life of a Whaler.
 The Lecture will contain interesting information to ALL CRASSES of the community.
 Admission—1s to the Pit; Front Seats, 2s. Children, Half Price.
