

December 7, 1966. Messrs. P. Trebilcock, G. Cosgrove, T. Erskine; Mesdames Buckthought & Beilby. Apologies Mr. Edmonds & Mrs. Pascoe.

To send £1 to the Hauraki Prospectors' Association. (Which had a mine and battery popular with tourists.)

Re Waikato-Bay of Plenty, to enquire why its meeting had not discussed Band's letter.

"If possible the Band is to play at the Captain Cook landing re-enactment."

Mrs. Pascoe appointed Secretary for April Contest and to contact Waikato-Bay of Plenty Assn. asking for the necessary information re same.

United Services visit to Hospital would start at 8:45 a.m. this year.

Carolling was starting.

Messrs. Buckthought & E. Williams appointed trustees of Social Club a/c at Waikato Savings Bank.

December 20, 1966. Messrs. Edmonds and Cosgrove; Mesdames Pascoe, Buckthought and Beilby.

Bandmaster's resignation with regret; letter thanks for services.

Letter to Mr. Harbridge asking to accept position for 6 months trial.

Meetings during 1966 could skip a month and have more than one in another, being governed by circumstances and pressures, with the forthcoming 1967 Centenary. Again there was change of Bandmaster to contend with.

Apathy was not a danger.

As a member of the Centenary Executive, I have a copy of the Programme for 1967 drawn up late in ~~1866~~ 1966
